

University of Wisconsin A|4 Financial Coaching Foundations Workshop

Monday & Tuesday, July 23 & 24, 2018 – Chicago, IL

Location:

Steinmetz College Prep
3030 N Mobile Ave
Chicago, IL 60634

Schedule:

Monday, July 23rd: Workshop from 9am-4pm
Tuesday, July 24th: Workshop 9am-4pm

Help your clients build skills for lasting change with Financial Coaching!

University of Wisconsin trainers will provide a 2-day workshop on skills and strategies for financial coaches. This workshop is designed as an introduction to financial coaching and can also be used as a refresher to practice and advance coaching skills.

Don't wait to register! Space is limited.

Registration Fee of $245 covers the 2-day training event; materials, lunch & refreshments included.

This 2-Day Workshop Includes:

- Coaching Definitions & Distinctions
- A|4 Coaching Model and Framework
- Foundational Coaching Skills
- Creating a Road Map for Financial Well-Being
- Strategies for Goal Attainment
- Working with "Stuck" Clients
- Increasing Client Motivation
- Structuring Coaching Sessions and Follow-up
- Demonstration & Practice
- Coaching Toolkit
- National Financial Coaching Resources
- Evaluation Strategies

In order to participate in this training:

- Participants are expected to have a general knowledge of financial education in order to successfully complete this financial coaching training. Basic money management topics will not be covered in this workshop.
- Participants are expected to attend and complete both days of this workshop. Following the workshop, participants will receive 1.2 Continuing Education Units from the University of Wisconsin.

TO REGISTER for this event:

<https://go.wisc.edu/l29acf>

For general questions call (608) 890-0229